Proceedings of the Resident in Mysore.

" . . . . . .

Dated, Bangalore 24th April 1899

Read:—

Report No. $\frac{A.D.J}{312}$ dated the 22nd Septemb 1898 by the Accountant General, Madras, on the application for pension on behalf of Mannar Moonisaumy Naidu, lately a constable in the Police Force of the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore.

No. $\frac{I.a.c.E}{709}$ dated the 27th March 1899 from —do— on the Subject.

Order:—

In the report read above, the Accountant General has certified that late Constable Mannar Moonisaumy Naidu is entitled to a Superannuation pension of Rs 3-14-11 a month for his qualifying Service in Superior grades of 26 years 11 months and 17 days. The offences for which the Constable was punished in 1876 do not appear to be grave enough to justify a reduction in the amount of pension to which he is entitled, and the Resident accordingly sanctions the yment to him with effect from the 1st gust 1898 of a pension of Rs 3-14-11 a month, itable to the revenues of the Mysore State d of the Assigned Tract.

The Accountant General will municate to this office and to the Comptroller of Mysore the correct amounts of proportionate shares of the pension chargeable to the Mysore and the Assigned Tract Revenues. The pension papers are forwarded to him for reference and return.

Proceedings of the Resident in Mysore.

Read:-

Report No $\frac{A.D.J}{442}$ dated the 21st January 1899 by the Accountant General, Madras, on the application for pension on behalf of Chickballapur Hanumantha Row, lately a Sergeant in the Police Force of the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore.

No $\frac{J.A.C.B}{709}$ dated the 27th March 1899 from — do — on the Subject.

Order:-

In the report read above, the Accountant General, Madras, has certified that late Sergeant Chickballapur Hanumantha Row is entitled to an invalid pension of Rs 3-7-3 a month for his qualifying Service in Superior grades of 18 years 9 months and 10 days. From the history of his service, it appears that his conduct and character were indifferent prior to April 1896 and that he was punished four times, one of the offences being that he was found asleep while on Sentry duty. The Resident therefore considers that the pension should be reduced by one rupee and accordingly Sanctions the payment to him with effect from the 5th April 1898 of a pension of Rs 2-7-3 a month, divisible to the revenues of the Mysore State and of the Assigned Tract.

2. The Accountant General will communicate to this office and to the Comptroller of Mysore the correct amounts of proportionate Shares of the pension chargeable to the Mysore and the Assigned Tract Revenues. The pension papers are forwarded to him for reference and return.

3. The District Superintendent of Police is requested to let the reduction of pension made in this case be known to the members of the Police Force under his control. A full pension is only given for completely satisfactory Service.
